

Bookvember is COMING!!

WANT TO JOIN IN THE FUN OF THE FAIR?

BOOK FAIR THAT IS!

Are you ready to take the challenge?

Did you know that the English program for 2010 begins in 2009?

As part of our ongoing initiative at Lilydale High School to promote healthy reading habits, students will be required to have read their first prescribed text for 2010 before the start of the school year. Not only will this give our students a positive start to the New Year in English, but reading at their leisure over the summer holidays will surely encourage reading for pleasure.

To prepare for this challenge, students in Year 7 are required to purchase the novel Falling From Grace by Friday October 30th at a cost of $18.00; they will be distributed at school as part of Bookvember celebrations.

Please note: this novel is a required text for 2010 and would ordinarily be on the booklist.

Remember, reading is fun!
